Welcoming a New Baby

Dear church family: rejoice with me. The Lord has seen fit to bless my family with a baby girl. She arrived early Sunday morning at 3:30 am May 22nd. She and Stephanie are both doing well.

It was a whirlwind of a week since she ended up being born Sunday morning, we had services at 8:00 and 10:30 am, and then I was on vacation. Originally I scheduled the week thinking she would be born the previous week and could have her baptized on the 22nd, but God, as He often does, had other plans.

Because of this vacation I was off Sunday May 29th. However, we did not want to wait any longer to have her brought into the waters of Holy Baptism and so scheduled her baptism for later on the 29th. Thank you to those who came to witness her rebirth.

It is such a blessing to witness a birth, but also the adoption into God's family. As we did when Samuel was born we announced the name during the baptism at the point where the pastor asks, "How are you named?"

"Katharine Jane Conradt".

The name Katharine comes from the Greek word καθαρος (katharos), meaning pure. The day of her birth that word was in the text (James 1:26 as καθαρα) that I preached on. It was regarding pure religion. We have also long admired Katharina Luther (anglicized Katharine) and she has received her namesake.

If you haven't learned much about Dr. Luther's wife there are a few great resources out there (including for children). Some of these include: Kitty, My Rib by E. Jane Mall, The Mother of the Reformation by Ernst Kroker, and the Hero of the Faith series for children and the graphic novel: Katie Luther.

She is indeed a fascinating figure in church history and served as a remarkable helpmeet to Martin. The church remembers her on December 20th (the date of her death).

Jane is a family name and is Stephanie's Mother's middle name.

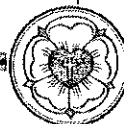

We rejoice to receive these blessings from the Lord as He chooses to send them.

As the psalmist writes, "Except the LORD build the house, they labor in vain that build it... Children are a heritage of the LORD, and the fruit of the womb is His reward. As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of the youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them;" (Ps. 127). Thanks be to God.

In Christ,

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

May 2022

What does LWML mean to you?

Dear LWML SWD Sisters,

Have you ever thought about “What does LWML mean to you?” This question is different from “What is LWML?” or “What does LWML do?” This question looks for a personal response, a possible one-of-a-kind answer. “What does LWML mean to you?”

This year we celebrate 80 years of LWML being the official women's auxiliary of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. For 80 years, mites were collected, missions supported, Bibles studied, mission education learned, mission service performed, fellowship enjoyed. For 80 years Lutheran women have served their Lord with gladness. “What’s your 80?” is an opportunity to use individual and group creativity to celebrate the 80th year of the LWML. Such joy is expressed in the celebration and sharing of different activities! Barb Kurth recently shared that Carmen Nieting celebrated her 100th birthday. Be sure to read Barb’s article about Carmen and her role in LWML at the local and national levels in this Mission Lamp issue.

This year we also celebrate 75 years of the LWML South Wisconsin District. Here too, we have collected mites, supported missions, studied the Bible, learned about missionary needs, performed mission service, and enjoyed Christian fellowship! Along with the North Wisconsin and Northern Illinois Districts, South Wisconsin District has the privilege to serve as part of the Host Committee for the LWML Convention 2023 in Milwaukee. More information about volunteer opportunities can be found in this Mission Lamp.

What does LWML mean to you? A grant recipient may answer differently than a mite box filler. A “planner” may answer differently than an event “attendee.” LWML needs grant recipients and mite box fillers, planners and attendees! What does LWML mean to you? You, the heart of LWML, as you serve and are served through the LWML, boldly share what this organization means to you. Ask others what it means to them.

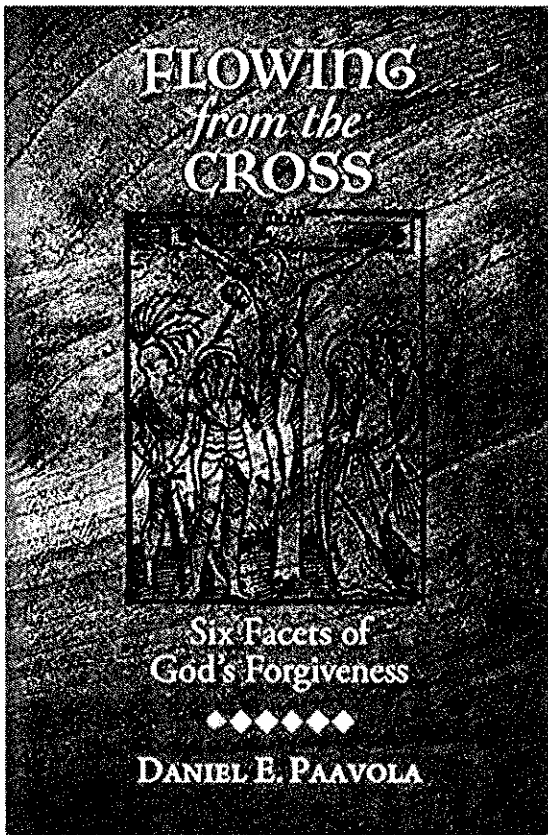

Serving our Lord with you,

You Are Invited to Women's Monday Bible Study

Starting Monday, June 20th
6:00 pm - 7:30ish pm

We will study

FLOWING from the CROSS:

Six Facets of God's Forgiveness

by Daniel E. Paavola

Please join us for this study on forgiveness!

From CPH:

Forgiveness is the heart of our relationship with God. Through Jesus' sacrifice on the cross, we know we can now come into God's presence and, covered by forgiveness, walk in His peace. But when was the last time we stopped to really consider the depth and richness of that forgiveness?

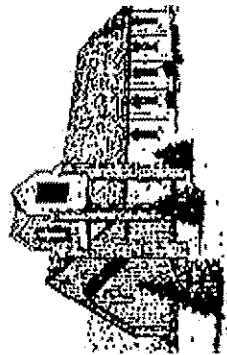

Flowing from the Cross uses the six faces of a cube and images drawn from the Bible to explore different facets of God's forgiveness. With relatable anecdotes, discussion questions, and hymn connections, this book will help you understand the complexity and comfort of the forgiveness that flows to us from the cross of Christ.

I would like to attend!

The ladies of Women's Bible Study (WBS) invite you to join us every Monday as we gather together in the conference room at church to hear and learn God's Word, pray for one another, and enjoy the fellowship of being together as Sisters in Christ. Register on the Women's Bible Study sign up sheet posted on the church office window or call the church at 262-534-3639. Books will be distributed during the first class and there is a $15.75 book fee.

Go, My children, sins forgiven,
At peace and pure.
Here you learned how much I love you,
What I can cure.
Here you heard My dear Son's story;
Here you touched Him, saw His glory.
Go, My children, sins forgiven,
At peace and pure. (LSB 922:2)
