Looking forward to the Fifth Sunday after Trinity

Monday: I Kings 19:11-21

Tuesday: I Peter 3:8-15

Wednesday: Luke 5:1-11

Thursday: The Lord called fishermen to be fishers of men (Luke 5:1-11). The net they would use is the message of the cross, which is foolishness and a stumbling block to the world (1 Cor 1:18-25). The power of God to save is not in spectacular signs like wind and fire and earthquakes (1 Kings 19:11-21), nor is it to be found in human intelligence and wisdom. The power of God to save comes in the still, small voice of the preaching of Christ crucified. In worldly darkness the disciples could catch nothing. But in the light of Christ whose Word was attached to the water, the boats were filled with fish. So it is that in Baptism you have been drawn in to the ship of the church. Though the nets are breaking and some who hear the Word do not believe, pastors continue to cast the net of the Gospel and the Sacraments, that you fish may abide in the boat of the Church and that you may be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you (1 Peter 3:8-15).

Catechism for the Week: Table of Duties: To Widows

What does God’s Word say to widows? “Now she who is really a widow, and left alone, trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. But she who lives in ^{la}pleasure is dead while she lives” (1 Timothy 5:5-6).

Prayers:

Collect of the Week (from Lutheran Prayer Companion)

O Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who have given us Your precious Word and blessed us with every physical blessing: we acknowledge that we are unworthy of all these things and have certainly deserved much worse, and we beseech You to forgive us our sins, as You did Peter’s, and bestow success and health to our calling, that we, being supported and defended by You both now and forever, may praise and glorify You for eternity. Amen.

Lord’s Prayer

Morning Prayer

I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

Evening Prayer

I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that you would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

Meatime Prayer

The eyes of all look to You, O Lord, and You give them their food at the proper time. You open Your hand and satisfy the desires of every living thing. Lord God, heavenly Father, bless us and these Thy gifts which we receive from Thy bountiful goodness, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Closing

Let us bless the Lord: Thanks be to God. Amen.
